Info 201

Makayla, Joey, Nathan, Nowali

Alert Count	3

Composition — 1
Much more information about NBA players than WNBA players

Collection — 1
Selection Bias
Not enough information on WNBA players

Description — 1
More variety of information on NBA players than WNBA

Provenance — 0

Completeness — 0

NBA VS. WNBA SALARY DISCRIMINATION

This data is a set of stats and salaries of WNBA and NBA players to discover if certain variables are used to determine performance based salaries. The purpose is to compare and contrast the data between players and discover whether the large pay gap between gender is justified. The data is set to answer questions regarding social issues in national level sports, specifically those with both women and men leagues.

Data Source:
WNBA: https://herhoopstats.com/
NBA: https://gigasheet.com/sample-data/nba-player-salaries-2022-23-season

Data Creation Range: 2022-Present

Content: csv files

ABOUT DATA

Fairness and discrimination
Data proved WNBA players are discriminated against in regard to salary

Transparency and explainability
Data was very transparent, no confusion. Good explainability

Privacy
Data expressed explicit, transparent data about players salary and age

Promotion of human values
Data did not promote human values as we are comparing private details contributing to what determines their pay

Professional Responsibility
Data alluded to players professional responsibility to disregard pay as a variable to participate in the WNBA or NBA

Accountability
Data is accountable and reliable, is constantly updated

Safety and security
Data disregards the subjects safety as it openly displays salary

Human Control of Technology
Data is successfully controlled by humans and is not AI generated